Early one bright morning
a small fuzzy duckling went for a walk.
He walked through the sunshine.
He walked through the shade.

Used by Permission

In the long striped shadows that the cattails made he met two frisky colts.

Used by Permission

“Hello,” said the duckling.
“Will you come for a walk with me?”

Used by Permission

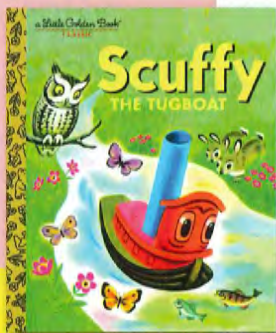

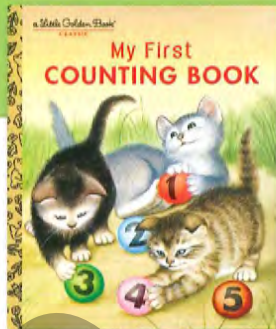

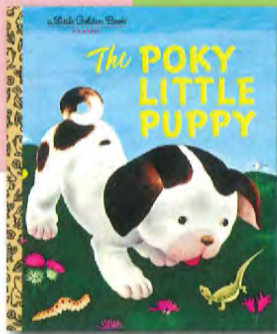

But the two frisky colts would not.

Used by Permission

So on went the little duckling, on over the hill.
