THE SAILOR DOG

By Margaret Wise Brown
Illustrated by Garth Williams

Used by Permission
Born at sea in the teeth of a gale, the sailor was a dog. Scuppers was his name.

Used by Permission
After that he lived on a farm. But Scuppers, born at sea, was a sailor. And when he grew up, he wanted to go to sea.

So he went to look for something to go in. He found a little submarine. “All aboard!” they called. It was going down under the sea. But Scuppers did not want to go under the sea.

Used by Permission
He found a little car.
“All aboard!” they called. It was going over the land. But Scuppers did not want to go over the land.
Scuppers was a sailor. He wanted to go to sea. So Scuppers went over the hills and far away until he came to the sea.

Over the hills and far away was the ocean. And on the ocean was a ship. The ship was about to go over the sea. It blew all its whistles. “All aboard!” they called.

“All ashore that are going ashore!”

“All aboard!”
There are more than 200 timeless Little Golden Books to share. Here are just a few of them. How many have you read?